MISS ALICIA LORANGER
... To Summer in Europe

Alicia Loranger, 1956 Whittier Graduate, Will Tour Europe

Miss Alicia Loranger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loranger, 1448 Post Ave., who received her BA degree from Whittier college last Saturday, is now bubbling with excitement amid plans for a tour of Europe this summer.

Miss Loranger, who was a member and officer of the Palmer society at Whittier, will teach next year at Ventura. Attending the exercises last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loranger were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Voien of Torrance.

An after-graduation party was held at the Loranger home here. Attending the late barbecue supper were Margie Miller, Johnnie McNichols, Shirley Milligan, Paul Chafe, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Stone, Pat Stevens, R. Cobb and Ben Bryant.

The local girl, who was active in campus affairs at Torrance High preceding her graduation in 1953, will fly to New York on June 19 with a friend, Miss Donna Pratt, also a Whittier graduate. They will sail on the Queen Mary on June 20 for Southampton, England. The girls will be members of the Olson Campus Tour, consisting of 28 college students. Their itinerary includes eight foreign countries and they will return to New York on Aug. 7. After a few days in New York, Miss Loranger will fly to Michigan to visit relatives before returning to California.

Sue Whittlesey Regan Weds Richard Mailander on June 9

Wayfarers Chapel was the picturesque setting last Saturday for the wedding ceremony in which Sue Whittlesey Regan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hargrave Whittlesey, 2705 Via Anita, Palos Verdes Estates, exchanged her wedding vows with Richard Arthur Mailander, son of Mrs. Audra Mailander of Long Beach.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white imported organza over pink tulle. Complementing the gown was a pink pearl cap and the bride carried a shower bouquet of pink orchids and ivy leaves.

Miss Denise Wilson served as maid of honor wearing a green polished cotton and carrying white Esther Reed daisies.

The bridegroom chose Merrill Wejola as his best man. The 130 wedding guests were seated by David Robert Whittlesey, brother of the bride, and James Moore.

The Rev. Kenneth Knox officiated at the marriage ceremony.

NOTE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Jones, 2030 Cabrillo, entertained at a dinner party at Welch's restaurant in Long Beach celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary on June 7.

Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Guy DeWitt of Torrance and Mrs. Clo Bond of Lake Worth. Mrs. Bond has been visiting at the Joneses' home for the past month.

Candlelight Rites Unite Charleen Speight-A. J. Cole

Candles and delphiniums bouquets tied to each pew in the Calvary Presbyterian Church marked the bridal path to the flower banked altar for the candlelight wedding ceremony Saturday evening, June 9, uniting Miss Charleen Speight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Speight, 26221 Athena St., in Harbor City, and Arnold J. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold E. Cole, 2339 248th St., Lomita.

Mr. Speight escorted his daughter to the altar. Her exquisite wedding gown had a rosepoint lace bodice over tulle, high neckline and long sleeves. The billowy skirt of embroidered nylon tulle and net was over tulle, which fell into a chapel train. A coronet of rosepoint lace sprinkled with pearls held the fingertip veil. The bride wore a brooch which was a wedding gift from her father to her mother on their wedding day.

35 years ago. Completing the bridal picture was a cascade of shattered carnations and stephanotis surrounding white orchids.

Grading shades of blue were emphasized in the gowns of the attendants, which as was the bride gown, were made by the bride's mother.

Mrs. Alta Madison, maid of honor, wore a floor-length pastel blue gown and carried coral carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jimmie Ann Welch and Mrs. Jacklyn Stant, who also carried coral carnations.

Mr. Speight served as best man and usher. David Scates, Robert Make, Lowell Summerford, and Sheldon Madison.

While the 200 guests were assembling Mrs. Kenneth Scott played the wedding music.

MRS. EDWARD KURTENBACH
... Flights Vows

Ree-Kurtenbach Names Are Linked in Marriage June 9

Baskets of white stock and yellow roses decorated the chancel of St. Eugene's Catholic Church last Saturday for the mid-afternoon wedding of Miss Conny Lou Ree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ree, 2803 W. 167th St., and Edward James Kurtenbach of Lancaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kurtenbach of Lindsay, Nebraska.

The three bridesmaids, Misses Wilhene Drewry, Kay Kellhor and Sharon Stumpf, entered the church first. They were all in yellow lace and tulle gowns and carried bouquets of yellow roses. Miss Karine Snore was the maid of honor. Her gown was also of yellow lace and tulle and she carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses.

Immediately ahead of the bride and her father were two flower girls, Kathy Mistokke in blue net and Lorraine Franco in pink net.

Then came the bride, lovely in her wedding gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. Her full veil of illusion was held by a pearl and sequin crown and she carried a white orchid encircled by gardenias and stephanotis.

Jack Kurtenbach served as best man and ushers were Jerry Ree, Frank Lambdin and Art Adrianson.

The Rev. J. G. Moschel was the officiating minister.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents and the couple are now honeymooning in Carmel and Lake Tahoe. Their future home will be in Lancaster.

The bride was graduated from Manual Arts High School and has held a position as secretary.

The bridegroom is employed at Edwards Air Base.
